1. Transport

In the event of war, all major transport will be concentrated on moving equipment and supplies. Two routes are considered in this connection:

- 172.2 55M a. Przemysl - Katowice via Krakow
- 755 55M b. Bialystok - Poznan via Warsaw and Kutno.
- 754 55M The first route is already adapted for dealing with increased traffic and has all the necessary installations and sidings. On the other hand, 756.1 55M the transport capacity of the second route will depend on the clearance of the Warsaw junction, the supplementing of the one-track sector from 753.41 55M Warsaw to Zowicz, and the construction of a number of sidings. As matters stand now, these routes can transport 20,000 persons per 24 hours.

Comment: This is the first mention of a one-track sector between Warsaw and Zowicz. All official maps show this to be a double track in full operation.)

Comment: in 1946 it was at that time single track.)

Rail Bridges under Special Protection of the War Ministry
